TEA, SUGAR RATIONING TO CONTINUE

A world shortage of tea and sugar would preclude relaxation of rationing of these commodities in the next ration year, Mr Coles, chairman of the Rationing Commission, said yesterday. Egg rationing would be lifted when increased production occurred, probably within the next six to eight weeks.

SERVICE QUERIES

AID FOR WIVES OF SERVICEMEN FROM ABROAD

By OLD COMRADE

Brides of servicemen from all parts of the British Isles and from Canada, Middle East, South Africa, Burma, and even a few from the United States, have already arrived in Australia. A comparatively large number have still to arrive from New York, a few even from Russia, and one at least from Switzerland.

As the European war draws to a close all the remaining wives and children of Australian servicemen who have married abroad will be brought to Australia as speedily as possible, according to shipping available.

I had occasion yesterday to make some inquiries on behalf of a serviceman who married abroad, and who has just returned to Australia. I found that Repatriation officers do all in their power to smooth out the difficulties of these new Australians. Responsibility for transportation and care of wives and children of members of the forces who may marry while abroad rests with the Repatriation Department from the time the wives leave their old homes in any part of the world till they reach their ultimate destinations in Australia. First-class fares are paid.

Nothing is left to chance. So satisfactory have been these arrangements that the department has received dozens of letters from grateful wives telling how smoothly the arrangements made by the department have worked. For instance, a vessel arrived in Melbourne from Britain on Christmas Eve. Among the passengers were many servicemen's wives from Scotland and England. Most of the children had never seen toys before, but Christmas toys were found for them, and although the wives and children had just arrived in a new land, free from bombs, the Christmas spirit prevailed. The Repatriation officers detailed for this work saw to that. They are sympathetic and understanding. Till servicemen's wives and children reach their new homes, wherever these might be in Australia, things are made easy and comfortable for them by Repatriation officials.

ARMY AWARDS

"Apex"—Army awards cover periods of six months, and it is not possible at this stage to say when the next list will be published.

INTERESTED IN PRINTING

"Casper," a soldier serving in a camp near the city, is anxious to learn the printing trade by working some nights each week with a printer. If this is practicable and if any printer can help this man I will be pleased to supply his address.

EX-NUPTIAL CHILD

"Mother of One" is advised to send in her claim for an allowance for an ex-nuptial child to the Deputy Commissioner of Repatriation, 621 Elizabeth st, Melbourne.

MAN'S DEATH FOLLOWS BURNS

David Richard Gorrie, 51, of Knox st, Yarraville, who suffered severe burns when an explosion occurred at the ICI chemical works, Yarraville on Tuesday, died in Royal Melbourne Hospital yesterday.

The mirror is old . . . so old that it has reflected the snowy shoulders and laughing eyes of many generations. But it is still treasured because of an intrinsic beauty of form and craftsmanship, inspired, long ago, by the charm and grace of one woman.

Beauty that will never fade

FEMININE BEAUTY has always been man's inspiration. In this scheme of things, Paul Duval personalised cosmetics are so very precious. Whether you are divinely fair or dashingly dark, there is a powder base, a subtle powder tone, rouge and lipstick in blending shades to give added piquancy to your charms.

"Re your splendid tonic: I could not walk with the pain of one leg until commencing with your wonderful Hutuwai. Almost from the first few doses I felt an improvement. I can certainly recommend it to anyone suffering with SEVERE RHEUMATISM. Glad to say there is hardly any pain now and none at night, and sleep well."—Essie Willgoose, Newcastle, N.S.W.

"My hubby has taken your Hutuwai, and is his old self again. Wishing you all the best to your grand tonic."—Mrs. R. J. Wilson, Traralgon, Vic.

"My mother-in-law was very ill with overwork, with her seven sons being in the Forces that she was told to give up the farm and go away, as she would not live long if she didn't. They were milking 50 cows, just the two of them. She was that ill she could not even wash or feed herself and had no vitality—and I got six bottles of Hutuwai and, believe me, she is back milking and doing farm work again. Even planting potatoes for the Army, doing her bit for her soldier sons. Thanks to Hutuwai."—Mrs. E. P., Kyogle, N.S.W.
